Requirements

1. Have source give all pay rates known to him. In relation to each pay rate, the following should be ascertained:

1) The rank or grade and position to which the rate of pay relates and for enlisted men whether the rate is for a conscript or a reenlistee.

2) Total pay and allowances broken down into:

- a) rank pay (for officers)
- b) position pay
- c) longevity pay
- d) specialist pay - drivers, mechanics, radio operators, etc.
- e) special pay - hazard, flying, distant locality, etc.
- f) allowances - ration, housing, travel, etc.
- g) fringe benefits - price differentials on food and other purchases, housing priorities, etc.

2. Have source describe the application of longevity rates to enlisted pay. Do all men of a given grade receive the same increase for longevity after two years of service or do the positions the men are holding influence the amount received?

3. Does source know of any changes made in rates of pay for army personnel in the years 1951-57?
